In The Sale of Hosiery Samples An Additional 7,800 Pairs.

ALE stocks now total to within 10,000 pairs of the greatest quantity we ever had in such a sale.

This actional lot of 7,800 pairs—unexpected good luck-provides a selection just as attractive as awaited the throngs when the store opened Monday morning.

Manufacturers' and importers' samples, of both women's and men's Hosiery, ranging from 25c. cotton and lisle at 15c. to Silk Stockings at 98c., regularly $1.39 to $2.19.

Not an UNPRECEDENTED opportunity, because we conduct these Sales twice yearly. But an opportunity waited for by thousands, who take advantage of it to lay in supplies of stockings at the lowest prices of the year. The underpricing:-

Men's Negligee

Standard $1.50 Garments, 87c $2.00 and $2.50 Garments, $1.14

O Shirt sale we ever announced heretofore created quite so much stir as this remarkable underpricing of over 12,000 high-grade Shirts-the surplus stock of a leading manufacturer whose product we carry the year around.

The stock is composed entirely of Negligee Shirts. And in this respect it differs from other sales characterized by a few desirable negligees and MANY undesirable stiff-bosom garments.

Involved are plain and pleated Shirts - coat models; mostly with attached cuffs; fashioned of woven madras, cheviot and percale. The majority of the $1.14 garments are fashioned of very fine quality imported madras.

They are full cut, "regular made" Shirts, not skimped in the slightest detail.

Men's Fur-Lined Overcoats Faultlessly Fashioned

THAT a Fur-Lined Overcoat fits the wearer full and free is quite as important as the good quality of the fabric and fur. Such a garment costs much more to make-in extra broadcloth and extra skins-than the "winding sheet" sort of a coat, and it is worth many times more.

Here are the liberally fashioned Coats-full sweep and graceful in line-at prices no higher than the tight fitting, skimped garments command in other stores.

A tailoring organization makes the fabric "shells" and an organization of furriers sees to the lining. Every detail of the work is carried out to perfection. Here are:-

At $54.50-Broadcloth Coats, 52 inches long, lined with well matched muskrat skins and interlined with French flannel; Leipzig dyed Persian lamb collars; sold elsewhere for $75.00.

At $83.50-Coats made of German Broadcloth, lined with blended musk rat, Leipzig dyed Persian lamb or Nutria collar.

At $112.50-German Broadcloth Coats, lined with Russian marmot Leipzig dyed lamb collar.

At $149.50 -Coats made of high grade French Broadcloth, lined with natural Southern mink, collars of fine quality Persian lamb or Eastern otter; regularly $164.50.

At $189.50-Fine French Broadcloth Coats, lined with natural Alaska mink, collars of extra fine Persian lamb or natural dark Labrador otter; regularly $217.50.

Finer grades in regular stock ranging up to $495.00.
